St. James's, November 8.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, waited on his Majesty, to congratulate him on his safe Return, and the Birth of a Prince; and being introduced by the Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Houshold, Richard Adams, Esq; their Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, your Majesty's truly Loyal and Faithful Subjects, humbly beg Leave, with most respectful Duty, to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and with Joy to express the Satisfaction we derive from your Royal Presence amongst us.

As our Zeal and Affection for your Royal House, have the next Place in our Hearts, to our Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person, we gladly embrace this first Opportunity of congratulating your Majesty on the Birth of another Prince: An additional Security for perpetuating the Protestant Succession and the British Constitution, the greatest Blessing these Kingdoms can enjoy.

We want Words to express the grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's gracious Acceptance of our Duty, and your Majesty's repeated Declarations of Favour and Protection: It shall be our constant Prayer, that your Majesty may long reign over a Free, Grateful, and Obedient People, and that the Sceptre of these Kingdoms may be swayed to the End of Time, by a Race of Princes descended from your Majesty, and Inheritors of those Virtues which adorn your Royal Person.

To which his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you for this very affectionate Address. My Care and Attention shall never be wanting for the Support of the Trade and Commerce of my Subjects; and the City of London may always depend upon my Favour and Protection.

They were received very graciously; and had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

Constantinople, October 5. Three Ships of War, carrying the Emperor's Flag as Grand Duke of Tuscany, are come into this Port from Leghorn. They propose stopping here a few Days only to take in Refreshments, and then to proceed on their Voyage for Smyrna, and other Places in the Levant. They have on board several young Noblemen of the best Families in Italy, who obtained Leave of the Emperor to go on this Expedition.

Petersbourg, Oct. 25. Her Imperial Majesty proposes coming hither To-morrow from her Summer Palace for the Winter. The Great Dutchess, who has been for some Days past very much indisposed, is now perfectly recovered. The Marriage of Count Golofskin with the young Countess of Schuwalow, was celebrated To-day with great Magnificence at the Palace of Prince Trubetzkoy; to which the principal Nobility of the Court, and all the Foreign Ministers, were invited. The Count de Lynar, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Denmark, has deferred his Departure from hence for some Time; and 'tis even thought this Minister will now pass the Winter here, a new Negociation having been set on Foot relating to the Affairs of Holstein. The Men of War, Frigats and Gallies, which lately returned into the Ports of this Kingdom from a Cruize, are all unrigged and laid up; and the greatest Part of the Officers and Sailors have obtained Leave to go to their respective Homes, but are to hold themselves in Readiness to return to their Ships upon the first Notice.

Vienna,

[Price Two-pence.]

Vienna, Nov. 4. The Great Chancellor of Hungary is ſet out for Presbourg, in order to make Preparations for the Reception of the Court, who are to go thither to be preſent at the General Diet of the States of that Kingdom, which will be held in that City in the Month of May next; the Univerſalia for which having been already ſigned by the Queen of Hungary. The Court has received an Expreſs from the Marqueſs de Prie, their Imperial Majeſties Ambaſſador to the Court of Venice, relating to the Diſputes which have ſubſiſted for a long Time concerning the Limits; and 'tis aſſured that Count de Harſch, who commands the Imperial Troops in Lombardy, will be appointed to ſettle that Affair with the Venetian Commiſſaries. The Regiment of Diemar ſet forwards on the 31ſt paſt from hence for Hungary; and is replaced by that of Berkenfeldt, which arrived here on Saturday laſt.

Bayonne, Nov. 4. We learn by Letters from the Ports of Spain, that there are ſeveral Algerine Corſairs cruizing off the Canary Iſlands; that a Veſſel, named the Delmina, richly laden from the South Sea, had been attacked at ſome Diſtance from thoſe Iſlands by two of thoſe Corſairs, the Crews of which, being greatly favoured by the Fire that was made by their Cannon and Small Arms, had boarded the Delmina; but her Men defended themſelves ſo bravely, that after killing or throwing into the Sea moſt of thoſe who came on board, ſhe got clear of them; and meeting ſoon after with two Portugueſe Men of War, they conducted her to the Canary Iſlands, from whence ſhe continued her Voyage for Cadiz.

Berlin, Nov. 10. M. von Tienen, the new Daniſh Miniſter, is fallen ill of the Small Pox. On the 8th Inſtant, being the Anniverſary of the Queen of Pruſſia's Birth Day, the Queen Mother gave a grand Supper and Ball in her Apartments. Her Royal Highneſs the Margravine of Bareith is greatly recovered from her late Indiſpoſition, and 'tis now ſaid ſhe intends ſtaying all the Winter at this Court.

Hague, Nov. 17. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland will continue To-day their Deliberations. Within theſe few Days paſt, divers Military Officers have taken the uſual Oaths before the Council of State, in order to qualify themſelves for the ſeveral Employments which his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange has lately conferred on them. We have received Advice from Loo, that their Serene Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange intended to ſet out as this Afternoon from thence for Utrecht, where her Royal Highneſs propoſed ſpending the Evening with the Hereditary Prince and Princeſs Caroline; but that his Serene Highneſs would, ſoon after his Arrival there, embark on board a Yatch for this Place, ſo that he is expected here To-morrow Morning. The Princeſs, with her Children, and the reſt of the Court, take their Route by Land; for which Purpoſe ſome Detachments of Horſe are gone from hence to eſcort them, and they are all expected here To-morrow Night. The new Company of Grenadiers, deſigned for the Regiment of Dutch Guards, is alſo expected here the End of this Week from Loo.

Dublin, October 30.

This being the Anniverſary of his Majeſty's Birth-day, the Great Guns were fired in his Majeſty's Park the Phœnix, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments in Garriſon, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a numerous Appearance of the Nobility, and other Perſons of Diſtinction, at the Caſtle, to compliment their Excellencies upon this Occaſion, before whom an Ode was performed as uſual. In the Evening there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies; and the Night concluded with Bonfires, Illuminations, and all other Demonſtrations of Joy.

Free Britiſh Fiſhery Society.

King's-Arms Tavern, Exchange-Alley, London, November 7, 1750.

WHereas the General Court of this Society did this Day, purſuant to the Powers veſted in them by an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Twenty-third Year of the Reign of his preſent Majeſty, intitled, An Act for the Encouragement of the BRITISH WHITE HERRING FISHERY; and by his Majeſty's moſt gracious Letters Patent of Incorporation, bearing Date the 11th of October, in this preſent Year 1750, order that a Subſcription ſhould be opened, for raiſing the Sum of 500,000 l. to be the Capital Stock of this Corporation.

And whereas, in purſuance of a further Order of the ſaid General Court, the Council of the Society, by the ſaid Letters Patent conſtituted, did aſſemble the ſame Day, and qualify themſelves according to the Directions thereof.

Now the Council of the ſaid Society do hereby, and by Virtue of the Powers veſted in them, give this publick Notice, That Books are opened, and Ten per Cent. on the Firſt Subſcription taken in at Meſſieurs Surman and Co. Lombard-ſtreet.

Meſſieurs Hoare and Arnold's, Fleet-ſtreet.
Meſſieurs Child and Co. Temple-Bar; and at
Mr. Andrew Drummond's, Charing-croſs.

And whereas ſeveral Perſons did, previous to the paſſing of the ſaid Charter, ſignify their Intentions of becoming Subſcribers, and did make a Depoſit at Meſſieurs Surman and Co. in Lombard-ſtreet; ſuch Perſons are deſired to ſubſcribe at the ſaid Meſſieurs Surman and Co. where an Allowance will be made of the ſaid Depoſit out of the Ten per Cent. hereby directed to be paid in on their Firſt Subſcription.

N.B. Ten per Cent. is directed by the Act and Charter to be paid within Thirty Days from the Time of each reſpective Perſon's Subſcription.
